

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

The Florida Writer

We welcome submissions to The Florida Writer from members of the Florida Writers Association. Share news about your accomplishments or your creative writing with more than 1,300 subscribers.

What to Submit

Celebrations

Let's celebrate your writing successes together. Marking a milestone in your writing career? Members who have good news to share about their writing-related accomplishments should send announcements for publication.

- Write a one-paragraph announcement in third person
- Type "Celebrations" in the subject line of your submission email
- One entry per issue per person
- Maximum word count: 100

Paragraphs

We publish selected creative writing by members who respond to a prompt. Prose, poetry, and excerpts from larger works that can stand alone are all welcome.

- Type "Paragraphs" in the subject line of your submission email
- One entry per person per issue
- Maximum word count for prose: 700
- Maximum line count for poetry: 50

Prompt for the June 2015 issue: Write a scene with two or more characters interacting that incorporates a summer activity. The activity can be something as simple as family vacation or it can be a new tradition, made up for the purpose of your story. If you need some inspiration, research how different cultures welcome the summer months.

Prompt for the August 2015 issue: Choose a place that has special meaning, a place you can see clearly. It can be indoors or outdoors, a place you have visited, one you can't visit anymore, or one you make up. Write a piece using all three of these elements:

1. A specific place
2. A moment in time when things changed
3. A character in action

(Inspired by A Field Guide to Writing Flash Nonfiction, edited by Dinty W. Moore)

How to Submit

- Deadline for submissions for the June issue is 5/1/15
